

Kittens are Kalling!

(With two photos in portrait format)

Having happily rehomed themselves in their new office in Church St., Tullamore (formerly occupied by the Tullamore Tribune), the Offaly S.P.C.A. are now buckling down to the even more important work of finding good homes for lost or abandoned animals.

Many dogs, currently in foster care, are in need of adoption but this first week in July has been designated as 'the week of the kittens'. Four in particular, are in the spotlight. One is all black, one is black and white, another is white and tabby and the lovely quartet is completed by a tortoiseshell. All are about 10 weeks old.

Anyone interested in seeing the kittens on the cat walk is invited to make the necessary arrangements by phoning the Kitten Line 086 0243183 or calling to the Office between 10.00 a.m. and 4.00 p.m., Tuesday to Saturday. And by the way, if the one you had your eye on is re-homed already there's no need to worry. There are lots more within cat call!

Caption for photo of Ginger Kitten in landscape format

The ginger kitten pictured here was found at Church Road, Tullamore, last week looking very lost and hungry. It was wearing a collar with a little bell attached and this suggested to the people who found it that it was more likely to be somebody's pet that had wandered away rather than an abandoned animal. Anyway, they fed it and referred it to the OSPCA. If the owner has been listening for the tinkling of that wee bell, she or he can hear it again by 'phoning the Kitten line 086 0243183
