

Offaly Dogs Have their Day

Maybe it was because they were very grateful for being given a second chance in life! Anyway, all the participants who turned out for the Offaly SPCA in the Tullamore St Patrick's Day Parade were on their very best behaviour. The dogs, that is. And the adopters and fosterers who walked with them didn't do too badly either!

The OSPCA entry was organised by Committee member Lavinia Cornally with face painting of some of the enthusiastic young supporters by Membership Secretary Mary Dunne. Included in the picture taken outside the GAA Social Centre following the very successful parade were: (standing at back, l. to r.) – Deirdre Pender, Audrey Quinn, Margo Mills, Vanessa Malone, John Mehigan, Robert Cajac (partly concealed), Ross Hathaway, Ada Bell, Andrew Cornally, Lavinia Cornally, Georgina Toohey, Dominick Bolger. In front (l. to r.) – Jason Doyle, Michaela Cornally, Carmel Kennedy, Oliver Kennedy, Samantha Toohey, Aran Toohey, Francis Toohey, Donna Mills and John Cornally. Organisers not in the picture included Dorothy Oakley and Mary Dunne.
